

Lyndon Group's Anthony M. Salerno, Appointed to The Entrepreneurship Institute Board

Salerno brings experience of working for great entrepreneurs as well as Fortune 500 companies to TEI.

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Oct. 3, 2007 – Lyndon Group (LG), a premier financial and IT consulting firm serving some of the best-known companies in the world, as well as middle market and emerging growth businesses, today announced that Anthony M. Salerno, managing director of business development, has been appointed to the board of The Entrepreneurship Institute (TEI).

Salerno brings with him a unique perspective having a career than has spanned from entrepreneurial start ups to Fortune 500 companies. Before joining LG, he was the North American controller for Aston Martin, a former division of Ford Motor Company which is one of the largest companies in the world. Prior to Ford, he was a vice president for Saleen, Inc., an entrepreneurial niche/exotic vehicle manufacturer.

Prior to graduating college, Salerno owned and operated his own start up auto detailing business which led him to appreciate entrepreneurship early in life. He subsequently went on to work for some very notable entrepreneurs such as Roger Penske and Steve Saleen.

“Tony will make a significant contribution to The Entrepreneurship Institute, offering a wealth of expertise and first-hand knowledge of what it takes to grow a business,” said Kenneth L. Jones, CPA, founder and executive managing director of LG and fellow board member of TEI. “He possesses a rare blend of creative, operational and financial strengths that can help entrepreneurs reach their goals.” “We’re delighted to have Tony and his considerable talent made available to our group as we all strive to enhance the growth of small and mid-sized enterprise and the jobs that get created as a result,” added Jan Wm Zupnick, President, The Entrepreneurship Institute.

The Entrepreneurship Institute’s primary mission is to provide America’s small and mid-market companies with opportunities to acquire knowledge, experience and resources needed for stronger profits and sustained growth. TEI is composed of local institute chapters with local advisory boards. Salerno and Jones serve on the Orange County chapter’s board.

With an average of 10 years individual experience, LG consultants are a valuable addition to a company of any size. As part of the Lyndon Group entrepreneurial culture, Jones and his team enjoy working with small and mid size companies and promoting corporate growth in Southern California and beyond. “Entrepreneurs are vital to economic growth,” said Salerno. “Lyndon Groups involvement in TEI is one way of supporting entrepreneurs and economic prosperity in our great country.”

About Lyndon Group

Lyndon Group (LG) is a financial and information technology consulting firm specializing in sophisticated project management, Sarbanes-Oxley compliance, SEC reporting, valuation financial reporting, audit preparation, acquisition due diligence and integration, internal control outsourcing, lean manufacturing solutions and personnel placement. LG employs highly experienced professionals, has a low overhead structure and passes the value on to clients. LG services both public and private companies and has consultants engaged at some of the best-known companies in the world, as well as middle market and emerging growth businesses. Visit the LG website at www.lyndon-group.com for more information.

About TEI

Founded in 1976, TEI's primary mission is to provide 24/7 opportunities for business owners to acquire knowledge, experience and resources needed to achieve their goals.

TEI is composed of local institute chapters, which are advised and sponsored by local advisory boards. Serving on these local boards are: successful business owners; professionals such as bankers, accountants, business attorneys, investors, marketing and management consultants, and members from those non-profit and public sector organizations with similar missions. Visit the TEI website at www.tei.net for more information.

Media Contact

Emily Carlton
HKA, Inc.
(714) 426-0444
Emily@hkamarcom.com