Lyndon Group Launches Valuation Financial Reporting Practice

Orange County-based professional services firm selects Project Manager Allan Maguire to head new practice

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. – Lyndon Group, an accounting, finance, IT and governance professional services firm specializing in project-based engagements, announces the launch of a valuation financial reporting practice for its clients, which consists of Fortune 500 firms, middle market organizations and emerging growth companies.

“There is a growing demand in technical accounting needs as businesses are seeing the significance of staying current on complex issues of financial reporting,” said Ken Jones, founder and executive managing director of Lyndon Group. “We are pleased to expand our capabilities to offer valuation financial reporting, as part of our tradition to provide exceptional quality service, value and results to our clients.”

Led by Lyndon Group Project Manager Allan Maguire, the valuation financial reporting practice will combine business and accounting expertise with leading valuation and corporate finance techniques. Maguire has more than 25 years of experience in senior level financial and strategic roles.

“With the new valuation financial reporting service practice, Lyndon Group can now provide a more thorough approach when solving a company’s sophisticated financial reporting needs,” said Maguire.
